

6 factors that impact your ability to hire IT talent in Atlanta

#1 | supply and demand

the gap is severe for specific skill sets (here are just 3 examples)

Security Analyst

June 2015 to May 2016

Supply ?

250

Active Candidates

View Details

Demand ?

3,248

Job Postings

Hiring Indicator ?

29

Java Developer

June 2014 to May 2016

Supply ?

1,607

Active Candidates

View Details

Demand ?

14,790

Job Postings

Hiring Indicator ?

31

IT Project Manager

June 2015 to May 2016

Supply ?

1,248

Active Candidates

View Details

Demand ?

6,516

Job Postings

Hiring Indicator ?

58

#2 | companies hiring in the Atlanta market competing for the same IT talent

Mercedes-Benz

sage

KAISER PERMANENTE®

Anthem®

PORSCHE

#3 | internal hiring processes

companies must act fast or top talent is gone

The top 10%
of candidates are often gone from the marketplace
within 10 days

Yet, the average hiring cycle is 45 days

#4 | the industry your company is in matters

employees find certain sectors more attractive than others

#5 | competitive salaries

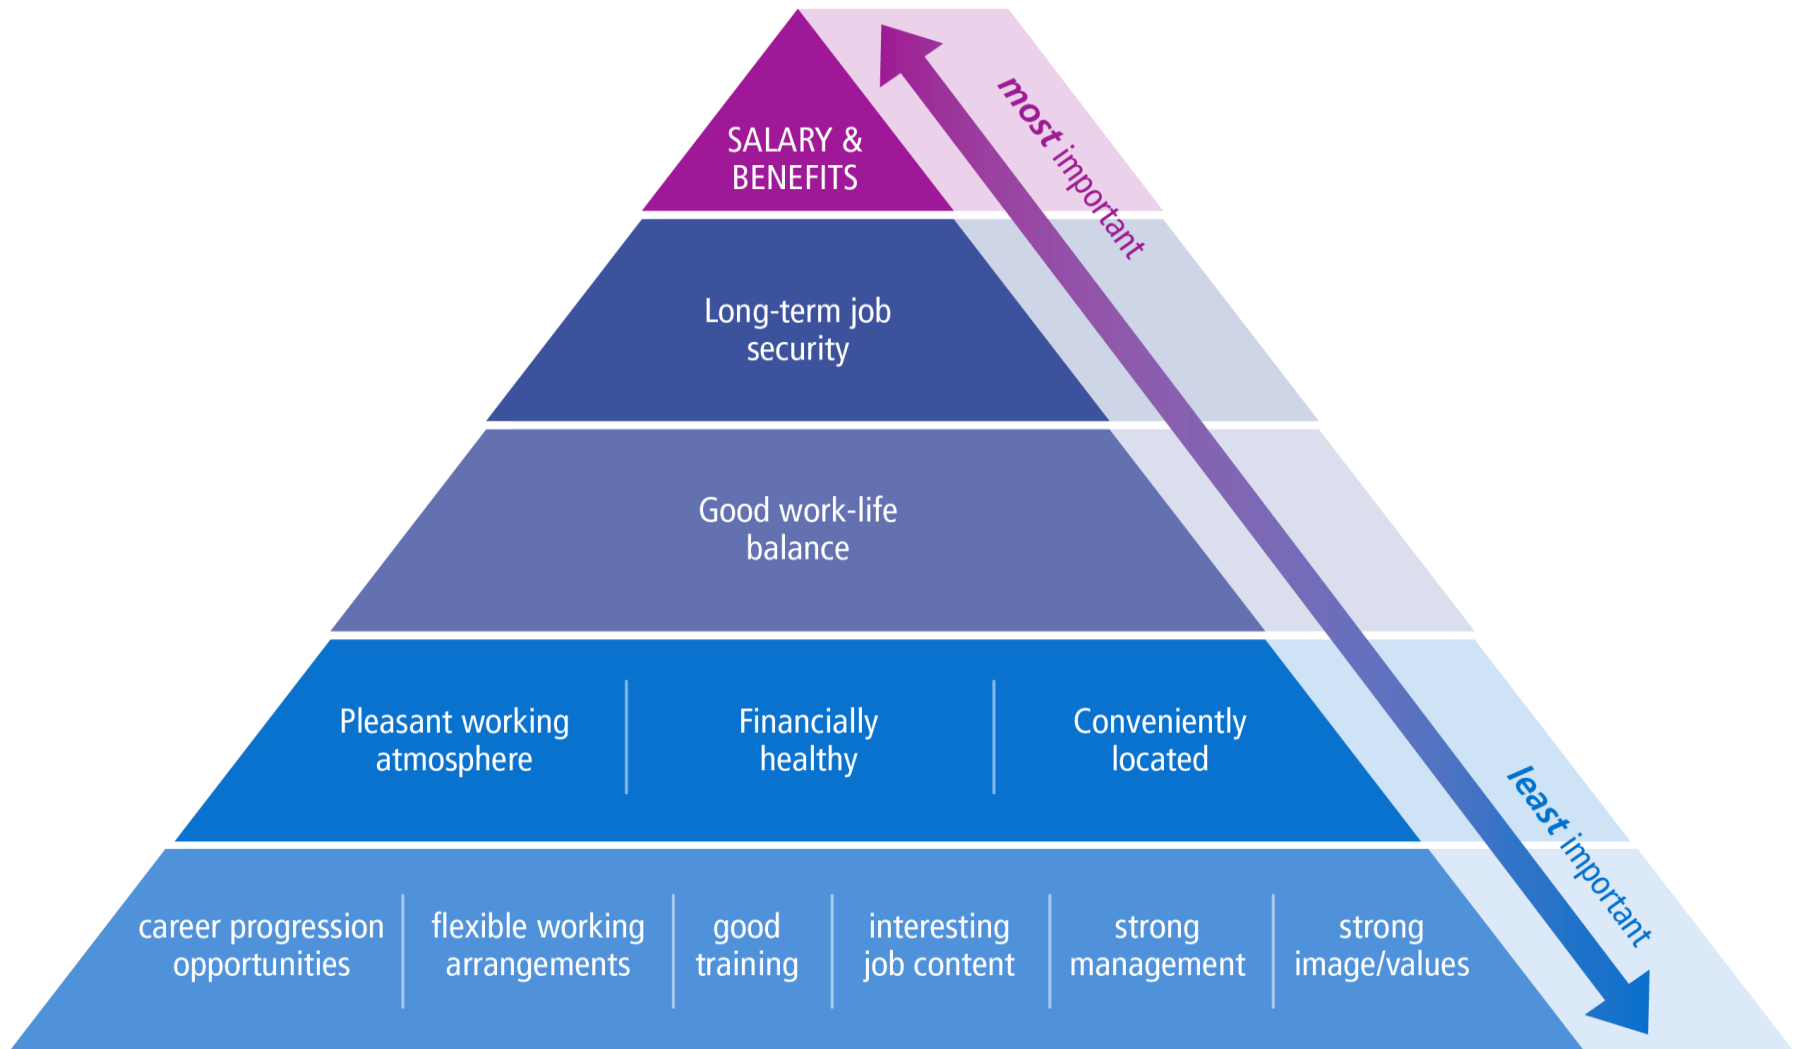

to get “A” players, you have to pay “A” player rates

You get what you pay for.

#6 | top employee criteria

does your company offer what employees are looking for?

The complete list and what's changed

Ready to talk? Let's discuss your IT staffing needs.

dedicated service team

local presence, global focus

sales service group

quality assurance